Dear Brothers and Sisters in the Lord,

The Pastoral Council and the staff have been discussing the possibility of offering a Sunday evening Mass to give families another option for Sunday worship. A poll taken among some families with children in religious education revealed that over a third found it difficult to make it to Sunday Mass because of other activities that their children were scheduled for. It is also true that some teens work on weekends and Mass does not easily fit in their work schedule.

However, if we are to offer a Sunday evening Mass, either at 6 or 6:30, it would be important that adults and Confirmed teens step up and take on the ministries that would be needed for such a Mass. We would need lectors, Eucharistic ministers, ushers and servers, and music. There would be training sessions for all of these ministries. If you would be willing to serve the community in any of these ways, please call the office. If there are enough people to cover a Sunday evening Mass, we would offer it on a trial basis from the first Sunday of Lent through Pentecost Sunday. Thank you for your help.

Peace in the Lord Jesus,
Fr. John

KNOW ANY HOMEBOUND PARISHIONERS

We will be going "on the road again" with Christmas caroling the evening of December 22, visiting as many as possible of our homebound parishioners. If you have the name and address of any elderly or disabled parishioners who are unable to come and join with the community for Sunday worship, please let us know by calling or visiting the Parish Office, or dropping a note in the collection basket. Joy to the World!

THE NATIVITY STORY

On Sunday, December 16, you are invited to the Family Room of St. Joseph Church from 7:00-8:30PM to watch "The Nativity Story." It is a beautiful telling of one of the world's most familiar stories. This is a PG movie with a mature theme. We hope many of you will join us to watch this inspirational and entertaining movie.

CD NEWS

There are a number of inspirational and inexpensive CDs available at the Church entrances. They make wonderful Christmas stocking stuffers! Why not add one of these CDs to your Christmas list? Spread the message of God's love during this wonderful Christmas season.

RCIA UPDATE

Please keep our RCIA candidates in your prayers as they continue their preparation for entrance into the Church at Easter. Starting today, they will attend Mass weekly, receive a dismissal blessing after the homily and meet with a parishioner to continue their understanding of the Catholic faith. Your encouragement and prayers are very much appreciated.

INTERFAITH CHOIR CHRISTMAS CONCERT

The Interfaith Choir's annual Christmas Concert, Rejoice and Be Merry, will be held at 7 PM on Saturday, December 8, at Hampstead Congregational Church, 61 Main St., Hampstead, NH, and at 4 PM on Sunday, December 9, at Londonderry United Methodist Church, 258 Mammoth Rd, Londonderry, NH. What significance does the Advent season have for our Christian faith journey?

Advent is a season of joyful anticipation and expectation. But for what specifically? Certainly not for the birth of the Christ Child—that occurred more than two thousand years ago. This season links us with all those who lived in the era of longing for the coming of the Messiah. But he has come and lived among us.

Then what are we joyfully anticipating and expecting? Some are joyfully anticipating the many gifts that they will buy and share with others, along with the many gifts they will receive in return. Others enter into the overblown commercialism—decorating, partying, writing cards, and all the endless customs that go with the season.

What if the anticipation and expectation were to focus on how we can continue to make present the living Christ in each and every moment of our daily lives? Yes, Jesus came among us two thousand years ago. But how do we continue to make that presence real in our world? Jesus himself set the agenda for us. We are to proclaim good news to the poor, liberty to captives, sight to the blind, provide food for the hungry, shelter for the homeless, and freedom for those who are oppressed and abused. What would the Advent season look like if this, rather than materialism, was the main focus of our joyful anticipation and expectation? Try it and see what results. It may surprise all of us.

SJRCS NEWS!

While many schools are preparing a team for their own big games, there are no less than 2 robotics teams at St. Joseph Regional Catholic School getting ready for the First Lego League New Hampshire State Championships. To qualify for the December 1st FLL State Championships, both the Xbots360 and the Final Six teams competed at the November 10th Seacoast FLL Regional competition. In addition to their day’s overall success, the Final Six also won a 2nd Place trophy for their Research Presentation. And the Xbots360 won 1st place for the highest score of the day as their robot scored more than 300 points. The school is celebrating not only this year’s success of their 2 teams, but also the fact that this is the second year in a row this has happened. Last year, St. Joseph Regional Catholic School also saw 2 teams qualify for States. Two teams qualifying for States, 2 years in a row is a record any school would be proud of. The fact that the school has enough pre-engineering students to field 2 teams is another thing to be proud of. Other pre-engineering programs offered by St. Joseph Regional Catholic School include robotics, Scratch programming, and web site development.

Be sure to take home a copy of Advent 2012: Glimpsing the Glory (at church exits). Find a few minutes each day during this busy Advent season to quiet your heart and pray. These booklets are free—our gift to you!

EXPLORING THE CATHOLIC FAITH

Today we begin the season of Advent, a time of waiting for the "coming" of Christ. Traditionally, though, we speak three comings of Christ: (1) In his birth at Nazareth, (2) when he comes as judge at the end of the world, and (3) in his coming daily into human hearts. The three comings are intimately related, the first two serving the third as their ultimate purpose. Comings 1 and 2 are not just interesting pieces of information, but are means by which God brings us into a loving relationship with Himself. In the birth of Jesus, God gives to us the gift of his own son, revealing thus the nature of His love. In the prophesied coming of Christ as judge, God impresses on us the stark reality of evil, the frightening possibility that the human heart can forever turn away from God's infinite love. The Scripture readings for Advent touch on all three comings. We hear of "unquenchable fire" (3rd week) and of the "dismay" that will accompany Christ's second coming (1st week); we are encouraged by the promise of a "mighty savior" (3rd week); and are exhorted to be "blameless in holiness" in order to "please God" (1st week). As we ponder the Advent readings, let us ask for a deeper acknowledgement of the darkness in our world, a darkness to which we all contribute. Let us ask as well for God's love to dwell more fully in our hearts, and especially for a heartfelt gratitude over God's gift of His Son.

Fr. Tom

If you would like to further explore Fr. Tom's topic above, you are invited to attend tonight's Exploring the Catholic Faith at 7:00PM in our Family Room.

These games do not have to be wrapped; just drop them off at the Parish Office and mark them for Deacon David. The "residents" thank you in advance.

CHRISTMAS CAROLING!

Come out in the cold to warm people's hearts! We will be bringing Christmas joy to our home-bound parishioners by caroling for them. All (including families) are invited to meet on Saturday, December 22, after the 4:15PM Mass at St. Joseph in the Family Room. Hot chocolate and cookies await the carolers when they return. Please join in—the more the merrier!
