Introduction to the Liturgy of the Day

All of us have belonged to a family at one time or another. Some of our families have been terrific; others perhaps have left something to be desired. Whatever your case, you also belong to the family of God. This membership has its perks and its responsibilities. We are each loved and cherished by God, but we each also have our tasks to do. Jesus knew his task early on. As we pray together today, let us each listen for clues about our place in God's family.

Question of the Week

Can I identify a specific way in which I can image Christ in each of the "families" to which I belong: my marriage/household, parish, workplace, school, social circle?

Your Parish Office will be closed on the following days in observance of the up-coming holiday:
Monday, December 31, and Tuesday, January 1. Happy New Year!

Living with Christ Morning Prayer

-Brother Roger of Taizé

Christ, Savior of all life,
you come to us always.
Welcoming you
in the peace of our nights,
in the silence of our days,
in the beauty of creations,
in the hours of great combat within,
welcoming you is knowing that you will be with us
in every situation,
always. Amen.

2013 Calendars Are In!

A Retreat with Fr. Michael Gaitley

St. Patrick Parish, 87 Main Street, Jaffrey, NH

February 9, 2013

Fr. Gaitley is the author of 33 Days to Morning Glory and Consoling the Heart of Jesus. He is also the Director of the Association of Marion Helpers and the Shrine of Divine Mercy, in Stockbridge, MA. Father will offer 3 talks during the day, and end the day with benediction, adoration, rosary, and the Chaplet of Divine Mercy. Lunch provided. Call Lorraine or Laurie at 532-6634 to register.

FIRST SATURDAY DEVOTION

3:00pm Rosary @ Mary Queen of Peace

Saturday, January 5, 2013

Our Lady promised to assist at the hour of death, with all the graces necessary for salvation. All those who, on the first Saturday of five consecutive months, shall confess (eight days before or after), receive Holy Communion, recite five decades of the Rosary and keep her company for 15 minutes while meditating on the Mysteries of the Rosary, with the intention of making preparation to her Immaculate Heart. Please come and pray the Rosary with us January 5.

Children’s Corner

Sharing the Gospel: Imagine Jesus goes to your church today. After church, Mary and Joseph find him on the altar telling stories from the Old Testament to the priests and the Sunday School teachers. Mary and Joseph would be amazed. They would want Jesus to come home. Jesus would love his parents so much that he would go home with them. He will stay with them until he grows older, wiser, and stronger.

Prayer: Lord, teach me your Bible stories so that I can teach them to others.

Something to Draw: Draw yourself or Jesus talking to the teachers in your church.

Mission for the Week: I will always let my parents know where I am, so they won't worry. LPI

Noon-5:00pm

(4:45pm Benediction)

Eucharistic Adoration is held on the First Friday of each month for the purpose of honoring and praying before our Lord and savior Jesus Christ. Please come and spend an hour with Jesus in Adoration. Sign-up sheets are located at our churches’ exits.

Religious Ed Grades K-5

Music, children’s laughter, and glitter filled the air the week before Christmas as we made decorations for our Christmas trees at home. Parents, siblings, and grandparents joined the Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday Faith Formation classes at MQP in a Christmas Carol sing-a-long followed by everyone making candy cane, wreath, or angel decorations. Thank you to the Team Teachers and families who brought their Christmas spirit to our events. A special thank you to Miss Peg Doyle, a retired Barron School teacher, who beautifully accompanied the chorus on Wednesday. Merry Christmas to all!

Used or New LAPTOP Needed

If anyone has a laptop that they would like to donate to a needy family, please drop it off at the Parish Office and mark it for Deacon David.

Not finding [Jesus], they returned to Jerusalem to look for him. After three days they found him in the temple, sitting in the midst of the teachers, listening to them and asking them questions, and all who heard him were astounded at his understanding and his answers. — Lk 2:45-47

And With Your Spirit

Today we celebrate the feast of the Holy Family—Jesus, Mary, and Joseph. This wonderful feast shows how the divine command “be holy because I am holy” (Lev 11:45) is meant for people in ordinary circumstances, not only for those, say, in convents or monasteries. Jesus, Mary, and Joseph lived simple lives. When Jesus was born, Mary and Joseph could sacrifice only “two young pigeons,” the offering of the poor (Lk 2:24). Joseph worked as a carpenter, and Mary as a homemaker. Jesus learned carpentry from Joseph and plied his trade until leaving home at the age of thirty (Lk 3:23). Mary and Joseph had no theological education and no official status in their religion, yet their preeminent role in salvation history is attested to by the Roman Canon, which places them before every other saint. In Scripture, God chooses Joseph to care for His only Son, and Mary sings, “My soul proclaims the greatness of the Lord, ... all ages will call me blessed” (Lk 1:46, 48). God was able to bless Mary and Joseph because of their attitude, summed up by Mary’s response to the angel Gabriel, “Be it done unto me according to your words” (Lk 1:38). God is able to bless us also, when we recognize in the circumstances of daily life our participation in the very work of God: “Believers acting in the various realities of this world contribute to the realization of the divine plan” (Bl. John Paul II, Canonization Homily for St. Josemaria Escriva).

Fr. Tom

Pastor's Corner

Dear Brothers and Sisters in the Lord,

Blessings in this Christmas Season. Though the malls think that Christmas goes from Halloween to December 25th, as Christians we know that the twelve days of Christmas last from Christmas through the Feast of the Epiphany. Christ was born on Christmas Day, but his birth was revealed first to his own Jewish people, especially to the poor shepherds. If we look in Matthew's Gospel, we note that the coming of the magi occurred some days later, when the crowds had registered for the census and gone home. The Holy Family was no longer in the stable but in a little house in Bethlehem (Mt. 2:1-12). The magi represent all of the Gentiles who would come to know Jesus not just as the Messiah for the Jews but as the Savior of all of the world. As the Christmas song says, "Come, let us adore him" not just in a crèche under our Christmas tree, but even more in our hearts and lives.

May his light shine ever more brightly in your lives in the new year.

Peace in the Lord Jesus,
Fr. John

P.S. Below are some of the thoughts of the Holy Father about this wonderful season.

These quotes and reflections from the Holy Father, Pope Benedict XVI, are excerpted from "Christmas: Pope Benedict XVI Spiritual Thoughts Series."

"Waiting"

The question is: Is the humanity of our time still waiting for a Savior? One has the feeling that many consider God as foreign to their own interests. Apparently, they do not need him. They live as though he did not exist and, worse still, as though he were an "obstacle" to remove in order to fulfill themselves. Even among believers—we are sure of it—some let themselves be attracted by enticing dreams and distracted by misleading doctrines that suggest deceptive shortcuts to happiness. Yet, despite its contradictions, worries and tragedies, and perhaps precisely because of them, humanity today seeks a path of renewal, of salvation, it seeks a Savior and awaits, sometimes unconsciously, the coming of the Savior who renews the world and our life, the coming of Christ, the one true Redeemer of man and of the whole of man.
---Pope Benedict XVI, General Audience December 20, 2006

"Preparation"

Christmas is a privileged opportunity to meditate on the meaning and value of our existence. The approach of this Solemnity helps us on the one hand to reflect on the drama of history in which people, injured by sin, are perennially in search of happiness and of a fulfilling sense of life and death; and on the other, it urges us to meditate on the merciful kindness of God who came to man to communicate to him directly the Truth that saves, and to enable him to partake in his friendship and his life. Therefore, let us prepare ourselves for Christmas with humility and simplicity, making ourselves ready to receive as a gift the light, joy and peace that shine from this mystery.

---General Audience, December 17, 2008

"Sign"

God's sign is his humility. God's sign is that he makes himself small; he becomes a child; he lets us touch him and he asks for our love. How we would prefer a different sign, an imposing, irresistible sign of God's power and greatness! But his sign summons us to faith and love, and thus it gives us hope: this is what God is like. He has power, he is Goodness itself. He invites us to become like him. Yes indeed, we become like God if we allow ourselves to be shaped by this sign; if we ourselves learn humility and hence true greatness; if we renounce violence and use only the weapons of truth and love.
---Homily at Mass for the Solemnity of the Nativity of the Lord, December 24, 2009

"Changing"

Only if people change will the world change; and in order to change, people need the light that comes from God, the light which so unexpectedly [on the night of Christmas] entered into our night.
---Homily at Mass for the Solemnity, of the Nativity of the Lord, December 25, 2008
