CHILDREN'S CORNER

Sharing the Gospel: Parents need time to talk alone. Each child needs time to talk to his or her parents. Children need time to talk with each other. When you listen to each other, you listen to God. If you have a fight with someone in your family, stop fighting and walk away. Take a deep breath. Pray for yourself and the person with whom you were fighting. When you go back, God will help you make peace.

Prayer: Lord, help my mommy, daddy, brothers and sisters get along with each other.

Something to Draw: Draw a man and woman getting married.

Mission for the Week: If I am angry, I will walk away, pray, and go back to make peace.

"AND WITH YOUR SPIRIT"

The last and highest virtue of what Bl. John Ruusbroec calls the "active life" is the virtue of "purity" (Espousals, I.22). This obviously includes "purity of body," the overcoming of sexual sin in thought, word, or deed, but also includes purity of the "will" or "heart." "Purity of heart" is the steadfast desire to reject everything "contrary to the honor and the will of God." One who is pure of heart knows that acting on a sinful temptation of any kind is a defilement of her soul, and so she flees "every temptation or evil inclination" and "without hesitation turns to God with a firm resolve ever to remain with Him." Through purity of heart, "all the virtues are practiced and preserved." To this point, Bl. John's description of purity will likely resonate with anyone who wants to serve God faithfully, but purity, this crowning virtue and "adornment" of the soul, means more even than resisting every temptation. It means no less than giving to God every bit of one's energy and attention (see Mt 22:37), "cleaving not to any creature with desirous affection, but to God alone." Desirous affection is the love for others (or things) that wants to find in them the "fullness of life" (Jn 10:10) that comes only from a relationship with God. We may fear that giving everything to God means deprivation for ourselves and our loved ones, but loving others purely is actually to help and enjoy them, more and more, as does God himself.

ATTENTION!

ALL EUCHARISTIC MINISTERS

It is Fall, a season of color and beauty! While change is in the air, our parish is continuing its renewal of our ministries. Since it has been a long time since there has been refresher training for our EMs, and since there are multiple changes that impact their liturgical logistics, mandatory re-training for all Eucharist Ministers will be taking place. We will cover both sanctuaries so that EMs understand the changes for both churches.

Choice of dates and times:

Saturday, October 13 or October 20,
from 8:30AM-1:00PM (meet at SJ Church)

(includes a lunch together!)

or Sunday November 4 from 1:00 to 4:30PM
(meet at MQP Church).

If you are a Eucharistic Minister, please be sure to sign up for one of these sessions. Sign-up Sheets are in both Sacristies. Thank you.

PRAYER SHAWL NEWS

On the weekend of September 22 we had the Blessing of the Prayer Shawls at all the Masses. It was a great success! We started with 18 shawls and had to replace them with more at both churches. We were happy to be able to give comfort to so many that weekend, and to let them know God is with them through their pain.

A couple of weeks ago the Prayer Shawl group of ladies met and attended a Tea at St. Augustine Church in Andover. It was so nice to meet other groups and see the shawls they made and to hear their testimony of people who are ill and received a shawl. Sheila Clarke from our group spoke of a man being touched receiving a shawl from his son. This man suffered a stroke and he lives in England. We all had a lovely afternoon and plan to attend next year.

High School Mission Trip 2013: Next summer during the week of July 21, we will be serving with Wheeling Jesuit University's Appalachian Immersion Experience in Jacksonburg, WV. Teens and adult chaperones interested in next summer's mission experience will be meeting on Sunday, October 21 at 7:00PM at St. Julie Hall to begin planning their fund-raising efforts.

Big Day of Service: We are looking to sponsor a Big Day of Service in October 2013 here in Salem. It's a day where 500+teens and their chaperones come to help build up a town/city. Last year, some of us participated in the one in Nashua where we landscaped at the schools in poorer neighborhoods, built a playground the city bought for a school, painted rooms of low-income families, fixed porches, etc. We're looking for people who could help us make it happen here in Salem! We're in need of organizational people, people who can write up plans for repairs and determine materials needed, people to help with the application process, find enough work for the 500+, help feed those who come to serve, and people who can help provide a huge block party to end the day! Our first meeting is on Tuesday, October 9 at 7:00PM in the Family Room. If you can't make this meeting but are interested in helping, please leave a message with Sue at the Parish Office.

Support our Parish Religious Ed Program while enjoying a delicious meal at Balducci's! Just mention Saints Mary and Joseph Parish when you pay and they will donate a portion of your bill to us!
