The Liturgy Committee would like to say "THANK YOU" to the Parishioners for their cooperation and participation in adapting to the changes in the receiving of the Holy Eucharist last weekend. At MQP we added an additional communion plate in front of the altar and all parishioners seated in the middle pews received at the middle and returned by the side aisles. Those in the far right and far left pews proceeded as usual. At St. Joseph, receiving of the Eucharist has been discontinued at the back of the church. All will proceed to receive in front of the altar. Again, thank you.

The more angels and shepherds (preschool age-grade 5) at Jesus's birth day, the more joyful! Help with costumes is needed—wings, halos, and shepherds' outfits.

Thank you for letting your "angel" help us celebrate the birth of Jesus! Contact: Mary Roy 893-8661.

BEREAVEMENT CENTER

Grieve well! Grieve with great hope!

On Thursday, November 29, at 7:00PM the Bereavement Center will be hosting an audio presentation by Father John Riccardo. Father Riccardo is a parish priest from Our Lady of Good Counsel in Plymouth, Michigan. He is known for his many presentations pertaining to our Catholic faith. Father Riccardo will show us how we can stay in communion with those who have gone before us. This evening is for anyone who is facing the holidays without their loved ones, no matter how much time has elapsed since they have died. The evening is free. Refreshments and fellowship will follow the presentation. Contact: Linda O'Reilly 893-6061.

"You are my inheritance, O Lord!"

Psalm 16

A big 'THANK YOU' to Joyce Dadoly of Total Packaging Concepts, Inc. of Derry for donating the 20 boxes for the Thanksgiving baskets. Her firm was the second company called and she quickly identified herself as a parishioner. Her price was perfect: $0.00! May her business thrive!

In Gratitude

Thank you, Father, for having created us and given us to each other in the human family. Thank you for being with us in all our joys and sorrows, for your comfort in our sadness, your companionship in our loneliness. Thank you for yesterday, today, tomorrow and for the whole of our lives. Thank you for friends, for health, and for grace. May we live this and every day conscious of all that has been given to us. Msgr. Buckley

WATCH FOR THE STAR

Decorating the church during the year is daunting, especially during Advent, Lent, and Easter. We try to find a way to bring everyone's focus to the core of liturgy, Jesus. We want everyone to see a beautiful worship space and be drawn into it and not be distracted by it. For the advent season we are hoping that a simple theme, and a gradual unfolding of all our decorations, will help draw us into the anticipation of the birth of Jesus. This year's theme is centered on the star that rose to shine brightly and guide, first the shepherds, and then the wise men to the baby Jesus in the manger. Watch as our star rises...it will show you the way.

Not what we say about our blessings, but how we use them, is the true measure of our thanksgiving.

CHILDREN'S CORNER

Sharing the Gospel: You have five dollars and spend all of it on a birthday present for your mother. Your mother is happy. But you are sad because you have no money at all. God will give you back more than you give away. It might be money, clothing, food, or shelter. He will always provide what you need. Believe in the power of God's love for you. Share with a smile.

Prayer: Lord, give me a heart that is willing to share money, food, clothing, and toys.

Something to Draw: Draw yourself and three things for which you are thankful.

Mission for the Week: I will share my time with God by reading the Bible. LPi

LITURGY OF THE WORD
for ADVENT

On Sunday, December 2, Liturgy of the Word for children will begin at the 9:00AM Mass at MQP and the 11:00AM at St. Joseph. The children will be dismissed to hear the readings of Advent, talk about the coming of Jesus, and will return to the assembly during the Offertory. Children of all ages are welcome.

"AND WITH YOUR SPIRIT"

To be formed in the image of Christ, is to think, feel, and act as Jesus would. In his own life, Jesus used every dimension of his human nature in his mission of revealing the Father's Being. Any one of Jesus's actions, if fully understood, would transport a person into ecstasy before the infinite Love, Goodness, and Forgiveness beheld therein. We must certainly hold that Jesus, in every moment of his life, possessed the "Fruit of the Spirit" which is "Love, Joy, Peace..." (Gal 5:22). Last week we saw how our journey toward being like Jesus begins with our imitation of him. A classic aid to this imitation is the examination of conscience, sometime referred to as simply the "examen." I can do an examen in the evening by prayerfully reflecting back on my day, recollecting the moments in which God was notably present or absent, or the moments in which I was or was not responsive to God's will. A yardstick with which to gauge the day's events is the "Fruit of the Spirit" mentioned above. Events characterized by love, joy, and peace model for me Christ's way of being, while events characterized by their opposites reveal the inadequacies of my own way of seeing life and of responding to it. I compliment my evening examen by asking God each morning to give me the grace I need for the day to overcome the inadequate patterns of thought and behavior I have discovered through my evening examen (see St. Ignatius Loyola, Spiritual Exercises, [24-44]).

Fr. Tom

Question of the week: A wise old teacher pointed out that Thanksgiving is really two words: thanks and giving. What am I going to give, and to whom, to show how thankful I am to God?

CATHOLIC CAMPAIGN FOR HUMAN DEVELOPMENT

"The Church's love for the poor...is a part of her constant tradition." The Collection for the CCHD provides funding for groups that create lasting change and uplift the poor in the United States. In the last five years, over 36% of CCHD's grants have gone toward advancing education, supporting economic development, and improving housing in low-income neighborhoods. You can help participate in this tradition today. Fight poverty in America. Defend human dignity. Give to the CCHD Collection.

First Reconciliation will be on Saturday, December 1, 10:00AM, at MQP for those preparing to receive this sacrament. Plans are in the works for the students at both facilities to take tags off of the Giving Trees and provide gifts, cards, and treats to others who do not have enough. This is a way of giving, of serving the community, and realizing and experiencing a heart-filled feeling of goodness and happiness.

He will gather his elect from the four winds.
Mark 13:24-32

RELIGIOUS ED Grades 6-12

Faith Formation Classes: Middle School Option A classes resume meeting Nov. 19. Option C's next class is Nov 18. Option 1 continues Nov. 18 and Option 2 resumes Nov. 27.

Confirmation: Our Parish will be celebrating the sacrament of Confirmation on Sunday, December 2, at 3:00PM with Bishop Libasci. Please pray that these young adults seek to be open to the promptings of God's Spirit! Feel free to join us at MQP on December 2 to support our young adults who are saying "YES" to the call to discipleship!

Your Parish Staff is thankful for...

- "...for hearts ready to sing their prayer. Despite all our differences, we can truly gather to worship. When that happens, the roof rises an inch or two, then peacefully settles back onto the walls." Anna (Music Minister)
- "...for the way the parish has been a very important and healing grace these past four years in my journey with God." Fr. Tom Fitzpatrick
- "...for the generosity of our parishioners to those in need." Mary
- "...for all our parishioners who remain committed to their church despite all its flaws and imperfections." Deacon David
- "...for my beautiful family (especially my grandchildren!) and for my mother who is 101 1/2 and still able to live alone and enjoy going out to lunch and for their good health. Also, for my second family—all my wonderful co-workers, they are truly a blessing." Carol K.
- "...for a lot of reasons: family, friends, health, a nice place to work and the people I work with, and for life in general!" Marie
- "...for my husband and daughters who love me despite all my flaws and imperfections." Dana
- "...for my wonderful family and friends! I am also thankful for all the support, prayers, and love that has been given to Bob and me by our parish "family" over the past few difficult years! Better days are ahead for us! Carol T.
- "...It's been a tough year for me, but with all your thoughts and prayers, I have found the true meaning of friendship." Denise
- "...for all who minister in the parish, not only at weekend Masses, but those who care for the poor, the sick, the grieving, children's religious education, decorations, the grounds, adult and teen faith formation, and a hundred other things. God bless all the hidden heroes and those who keep us in prayer." Fr. John
