QUESTION OF THE WEEK

We ask ourselves the question of the Gospel—"What should I do?"—to provide hospitality to the Jesus who is coming not only as Redeemer but as Judge. "What shall I do" to fulfill John's challenge to charity, justice, and integrity in my life?

CD NEWS

New CDs are available at each Church entrance. Make this advent a time of reflection and prayer. You may also find some interesting and inspiring topics that would make wonderful stocking stuffers. A number of parishioners have enjoyed the Advent reflections.

CHRISTMAS DECORATING AT MQP

We will be working at making our worship space joyful and festive on Sunday, December 23 after the 10:45AM Mass. Please bring your energy and your creative eye, it takes many hands to decorate our large worship space to make the church beautiful!

HELP NEEDED!

A single Mom with a 6 year-old child is in need of a serviceable car for less than $1,000. Please call the Parish Office if you are able to help. Thank you.

RETIREMENT FUND FOR RELIGIOUS

Thank you for donating to the Retirement Fund for Religious. A sister from Pennsylvania writes, "In our prayers, all the sisters remember in a special way the faithful of the dioceses who support the collection. We realize that their sacrifices and generosity have made this assistance possible. May God reward them."

THE RISING STAR

Keep your eye on our blue banners and watch our star grow larger and move higher each week. Let our star help draw you towards the manger and the baby Jesus and his gifts of love, peace, and joy. If you can take a moment in prayer as you look to the star, it can help you along your Advent journey.

CHILDREN'S CORNER

Sharing the Gospel: How can you show you love God? Instead of keeping all of your clothes and food, share some with people who don't have any. Be happy and thankful for all God has given you. When you love God more than money, you'll be happy to share.

Prayer: Dear God, help me to share happily with others.

Something to Draw: Draw a picture of yourself sharing a snack with a classmate who has none.

Mission for the Week: The next time you go grocery shopping with your parents, ask if you can pick out some foods to share with the poor. As a family, talk about how thankful you are for the many ways God takes care of you.

SPIRITUAL EXERCISES RETREAT

Once again Fr. John is offering the Spiritual Exercises of St. Ignatius in daily life. This is for a person who does not have the time to go away for 30 days in prayer with four or five meditations a day. Those who choose this retreat would meet once a week on a Tuesday beginning in January and ending in June. Each person choosing this retreat is asked to give 45-60 minutes a day to praying over the assigned scripture passages or meditations from the Spiritual Exercises and then journal what happened in the person's prayer. The retreat is limited to 8 people. At times a person would meet one-on-one with the one giving the Exercises. A preliminary meeting will be held on Tuesday, December 18, at 7:15PM in the rectory. Come and get to know Jesus more intimately. Contact: Fr. John @jmichalowski@sjnen.org

AND WITH YOUR SPIRIT

We continue today our lighting of the Advent wreath, calling to mind that Christ has come into our world as the "light of life" (Jn 8:12). Our purple (or blue) candles, the color of mourning, remind us that Christ came to dispel the darkness of sin, a darkness that exists both around us and within us. John the Baptist exhorted us last week to "prepare the way of the Lord" through "repentance" (Lk 3:1-6). The purple candles thus invite us to consider our own contributions to the world's darkness, that we might grow in our eagerness to receive the light of Christ into our own hearts. Pondering one's personal darkness can, of course, lead to discouragement, since we often fall short of loving the way Christ loved, and may think that our progress toward holiness is painfully slow. To put repentance in its proper perspective, therefore, we light a pink candle on this third Sunday of Advent. Pink, the color of joy, reminds us that John's message of repentance is actually "Good News." John is preparing us for the promise he makes in today's Gospel, that Jesus will baptize us in "the Holy Spirit and fire." Hopefully, amid holiday shopping, we will still take time to reflect on the meaning of Advent, and will come to recognize more acutely our need for a savior who will show us how to shine our love into the darkness of our world. The heartfelt desire for the coming of Christ will prepare us to receive the profound graces of Christmas.

RELIGIOUS ED Grades 6-12

Faith Formation Classes: Middle School Option A class meets December 17. Option C's next class is January 13. Option B begins on January 7.

Middle School Retreat: Youth in grades 6-8 who signed up for the December 16 retreat will be meeting 10:00AM-5:00PM at MQP. This year's retreat theme is "So Long Self: a retreat about being other-centered." The day promises to be filled with laughter while being challenged to live our Christianity more authentically. Please keep the youth and the team in prayer for a grace-filled experience!

College Care Packages: I am so blown away by the families of Options A, C and 1 and their contributions to the college care packages. The 12x12 boxes were STUFFED with munchies, ramen noodles, mac and cheese, popcorn, hot chocolate, candy canes, gum, chocolates, index cards, highlighters, notebooks, air fresheners, pencils, bubblegum with a note wishing them a "bubbly day," prayer cards, and even lottery tickets! Thank you so much for helping us let our college youth know that we care and are thinking of them!

GRADE 5 FAITH FORMATION UPDATE

Thank you to the students, parents, and families that participated in and attended our First Reconciliation Penance Service on Saturday morning, December 1. A special thank you to all the wonderful Deanery Clergy who assisted our Pastor with the service. God Bless You.

The week of December 17-19, the students who attend Grades 1-4 at 200 Lawrence Road will sing their favorite Christmas carols for the parents. Following the mini-concerts, the families will go to the MQP Hall and make a Christmas craft together.

This will mark the end of classes for 2012 and the beginning of the Christmas season. Merry Christmas to all our families and a Happy 2013.

Classes resume Monday, January 7, 2013 for our students who attend at MQP.

At our 40 Main Street facility, our Sunday morning classes, the Grade 5 class in particular, provided a Christmas dinner and gifts for a family in our parish. Thank you to all the students, parents, and Team Teachers who put this together. The younger students brought in wrapped children's gifts to help bring Christmas to others who are not so fortunate.

Classes resume Sunday, January 6, 2013 for our students who attend at St. Joseph School.

CATHEDRAL PARISH CHOIR

Friday, December 21, 7:30PM

St. Joseph Cathedral

145 Lowell Street, Manchester, NH

Soloists Karol Carroll, Eileen Christiansen, Marc DeMille, Courtney Eschbach-Wells, Murray Kidd, the Cathedral Parish Choir and the Diocesan Festival Chorus all join forces in singing the Christmas portion of G.F. Handel's monumental Messiah. Accompanied by chamber orchestra, the concert will be conducted by Diocesan & Cathedral Director of Music, Mr. Eric Bermani. A suggested freewill offering of $15 will directly benefit the Cathedral's Music Ministry. The Cathedral is wheelchair accessible.

For additional information, please call Eric Bermani at 622-6404 x31 or
