Reflection 04-03-2016

Easter Celebrated

The Easter Season celebrates our Lord's Resurrection and the Lord's triumph over evil and death. The season begins with Easter Sunday and concludes with the Feast of Pentecost. Pentecost, along with the feasts of Passover & Tabernacles were the three major feasts of the Jewish liturgical year. All male Israelites were required to celebrate in the Temple of Jerusalem. The Jewish feast of Pentecost was originally an agricultural feast that did not take form until the Israelites had become primarily an agricultural community in Canaan. Pentecost was celebrated at the time of the beginning of grain harvest. However, in time the motif of the feast changed and it became the anniversary of the giving of the Law (Torah) to Moses. In the Christian era, Pentecost became the day that the Apostles received the Holy Spirit (Acts c.2).

Although some designate Pentecost as the birthday of the Christian Church, this is a reading back into history. St. Luke's account of the gift of the Holy Spirit upon the Apostles, as narrated in Acts 2, shows forth the historical development of the mission given to the Apostles, "go out to all the world and preach the good news." As Luke's account, as narrated in Acts, was written some fifty or more years after these events, there was a historical development of the establishment of the Christian Church.

In celebrating the Easter Season we are celebrating our lives as Christians and the gift of faith which we have received. This past week in the daily liturgy of the Eucharist, the gospels narrate the various appearances or apparitions Jesus made to his disciples. Although no one actually witnessed Christ's Resurrection, in these appearances/apparitions we celebrate the Christ of the Resurrection and we rejoice during these fifty days that we are Christians.

We Welcome You!!

Our Parish family welcomes our newly Baptized and Confirmed - Karen Ruais, Marshall Tucker, Eryn McGuinness, Jim Dunn and Dawn Marie McCarthy.

Mass with the Anointing of the Sick

On Sunday, April 24, at MQP we are adding an additional Mass at 2:00pm, which will include the Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick. If you are sick, awaiting surgery, growing feebler with age, or struggling with a debilitating condition, please consider coming to receive this sacrament in the midst of a caring and prayerful community. If you know anyone in need of the sacrament, please invite them and even offer them a ride to the Mass! We invite all to come to this special liturgy to provide a caring environment and to offer prayerful support.

Family Service Day

Do you have yardwork/housework or a small house project that you are unable to do that a family or two within our parish could help with? Or do you know someone we could help with yardwork, planting, painting, cleaning, etc.? Do you know of any community organizations that could use our help in tackling a project? On April 16th we are joining families and interested parishioners together to spend a morning serving those in need. Applications are available at the Parish Office and on the website.

Palm Sunday

On Palm Sunday, the First Eucharist students and their families processed with palms and placed them on the altar. What a beautiful liturgy to begin Holy Week!!

What's Happening at Kids Church...

We had an incredible Easter celebration at Kids Church! We all had Alleluia Hearts! Our little ones were able to be at the tomb on that first Easter morning and feel the excitement and joy as they ran to tell the disciples that Jesus was alive! They were able to go inside the tomb and see that it was empty! Because Jesus rose from the dead, we were saved from sin. We can remember the wonderful news of the Resurrection not just today, but every day! The children created colorful butterfly wands that accompanied us as we sang our song "Alive! Alive!" Easter Bunnies... Have big ears that are quick to listen. Eat what is healthy by filling up on God's Word every day. Have big feet to go tell others about Jesus. Are quiet in prayer, but hop with thanksgiving and rejoicing. Are gentle, kind-hearted and forgiving. Have big eyes to look carefully and choose what is good.

Sunday of Divine Mercy—April 3, 2016

Part-time Computer Teacher

St. Joseph Regional Catholic School in Salem is currently accepting applications for a part-time computer teacher to work two full days, Tuesday and Thursday from now to June 15. Teaching experience for grades PreK through Grade 8 is preferred, as is NH certification as Education Technology Integrator, or eligibility to hold NH Certification required, or certification in computer technology skills. There is the possibility of a stipend for maintaining the technology needs of the building. The successful candidate will be required to complete the Diocesan online course of "Child Safety Training" before beginning. We will be looking for a candidate for the 2016-2017 school year as well. Interested candidates should complete a Diocesan Staff Application and send it along with a letter of interest and resume, and three reference letters to:

Book Discussion Group

Our book for Wednesday, April 20th, will be New York Times Bestseller: The Name of God is Mercy, by Pope Francis, in a conversation with Vatican reporter Andrea Tornielli, in which the Pope explains why "mercy is the first attribute of God," and the Church must not turn its back on anyone. This book has been published in more than eighty countries around the world. We will meet at MQP in the Emmaus Room 6:30-8:00pm, to discuss the book. Newcomers are always welcomed. Contact person is Norma Zimmermann at normazimmermann@gmail.com.

Vocations... "As the Father has sent Me, so I send you." Do you have a growing interest in sharing the Lord's saving mission as a priest or in the consecrated life? Call Father Jason Jalbert (603) 669-3100, or write: jjalbert@rcbm.org.
