Reflection 6-14-15

When I was a little girl, my family visited the New England Aquarium. I was too small to see over the wall, into the Penguin tank. My Dad picked me up and stood me on the wall so I could see. At first, I was terrified! I begged my Dad not to let go! He promised he wouldn't drop me. His words of assurance made me feel better. I trusted him. After all, he never let me fall before. I could count on my Dad to do what he said he would do.

In today's second reading, Paul makes a bold statement: "We are always courageous...for we walk by faith, not by sight." Is Paul suggesting we have a BLIND faith?

The dictionary defines blind faith as "belief without true understanding." We mistakenly assume we must navigate through life like this. Paul does indicate that faith is what leads us – but that "faith" is far from "blind." Jesus did not bring light into the world so that we would stumble along in blind faith. (John 3: 16 – 21)

We can have a "realistic" faith, a trust in God that is developed from our life experience, like I have with my Dad. How do we develop a strong, confident faith in order to rely on God and trust His character? By talking with Him every day, reading the Bible, attending Mass and participating in the sacraments. The more time we spend with God, the more we can trust His character and like Paul, be courageous in our walk with Him!

Justine Dufour
Pastoral Minister

Dear Brothers and Sisters in the Lord,

The task of bringing the Gospel into our lives and into our world is never done. St. Paul would go from city to city establishing a Christian community, appointing a new leader like Timothy or Titus, and then go on to a new apostolic venture. For over a hundred years, priests have ministered in Salem with one pastor succeeding another. That time is drawing near once again. It is now official. This week we received a letter from Bishop Peter Libasci appointing Fr. Tom as the new pastor beginning on August 1st. I can do no better than wish him well in the words of St. Paul: "May grace and peace from God our Father, and Christ Jesus our Savior, be with you." (Titus 1:4). "I charge you to preach the word, to stay with this task whether convenient or inconvenient ... constantly teaching and never losing patience." (II Timothy 4:2).

You know of Fr. Tom's great enthusiasm for the Gospel. Pray for him that the Holy Spirit may give him the wisdom and perseverance that he needs to deal with numerous administrative duties. As for me, I will take the month of August to downsize reams of papers and numerous books as I live at our larger Jesuit community at Holy Cross College, and prepare to leave for a three-month sabbatical in Jerusalem at the Tantur Ecumenical Institute.

Peace in the Lord Jesus,
Fr. John
