AMERICA WELCOMES
POPE FRANCIS

SEPTEMBER 2015

Reflection 9-27-2015

Today's Gospel begins with a scene that recalls a similar moment in the history of Israel, the episode recalled in today's First Reading. The seventy elders who receive God's Spirit through Moses prefigure the ministry of the apostles.

Like Joshua in the First Reading, John makes the mistake of presuming that only a select few are inspired and entrusted to carry out God's plans. The Spirit blows where it wills (John 3:8), and God desires to bestow His Spirit on all the people of God, in every nation under heaven (Acts 2:5, 38).

God can and will work mighty deeds through the most unexpected and unlikely people. All of us are called to perform even our most humble tasks, such as giving a cup of water, for the sake of His name and the cause of His kingdom.

John believes he is protecting the purity of the Lord's name. But, really, he's only guarding his own privilege and status. It's telling that the apostles want to shut down the ministry of an exorcist. Authority to drive out demons and unclean spirits was one of the specific powers entrusted to the Twelve (Mark 3:14-15; 6:7, 13).

Cleanse me from my unknown faults, we pray in today's Psalm. Often, like Joshua and John, perhaps without noticing it, we cloak our failings and fears under the guise of our desire to defend Christ or the Church. But as Jesus says today, instead of worrying about who is a real Christian and who is not, we should make sure that we ourselves are leading lives worthy of our call as disciples (Ephesians 1:4).

Does the advice we give, or the example of our actions, give scandal—causing others to doubt or lose faith? Do we do what we do with mixed motives instead of seeking only the Father's will? Are we living, as this Sunday's Epistle warns, for our own luxury and pleasure, and neglecting our neighbors?

We need to keep meditating on His Law, as we sing in today's Psalm. We need to pray for the grace to detect our failings and to overcome them.

Dr. Scott Hahn

It's that time of year again for Honduran Mission Team (HMT) to be selling gift cards as a fundraiser again this year. Many of you took advantage of this event to start your Christmas shopping early. You saved your energy and gas—AND SUPPORTED THE TEAM! Some of our sales last year were grocery cards purchased for our food pantry and department/specialty gift cards that were used for our annual Giving Tree. Look for the order forms at the back of our churches and return them to the Parish Office. There will be two order dates: October 30th with a possible return in early November, and November 23rd with a possible return in early December. Now is the time to get your Christmas list started!

For people who are new in their grief as well as those who are further along in their grief. A time to remember our loved one's lives and thank God for the time we had with them. There will be guest speakers witnessing how they got through their grief (not over it, but through it). Fellowship and snacks will follow. Save the date, bring your family or a friend. Also, the Bereavement Group is planning to donate a Christmas tree in memory of their loved ones to the Festival of Trees in November. If you are downsizing and want to get rid of your tree, please call us at 893-6061. We are looking for an 8 foot tree.
