Sts Mary and Joseph

Fifth Sunday of Lent

*I do not condemn you,
but sin no more.*

Reflection 3-13-16

As we journey through Lent, let us reflect on its penitential practices. Penance is not an end in itself, but rather a help to recognize the difference between “things of this passing world” and those “that eternally endure” (Preface II of Lent); a help to “raising up our minds,” so we may attain “virtue and its rewards” (Preface IV of Lent—the prayer at mass just before the “Holy Holy”). Virtue’s reward, promised by Scripture and affirmed by Pope Francis, is remarkable: a joy that “always endures” (Joy of the Gospel, 6; see Phil 4:4) and a “peace that passes understanding” (Phil 4:7). The promise is so remarkable in fact that many people today call Christian faith naïve. Yet Scripture is called Revelation because it is a Truth beyond human comprehension, a Truth we could not have imagined without God’s Word, a Truth we grasp only by stepping out in faith to align our lives with it. Aligning our lives to Truth is the means by which we see (with eyes of the heart) the “eternal” meaning of “passing things” in our daily lives. Some “passing things” are of course “crosses,” even painful ones, whose “eternal meaning” is hard to recognize. The meaning of “The Cross” is the precise theme of the Liturgy over the next two weeks, as the Preface shifts tomorrow from that of Lent to that of the Passion. Let us enter this special time, then, with hearts and minds open to the miraculous graces God intends to give us.

Fr. Tom

Family Promise of Greater Rockingham County

Our parish is pleased to announce that we are joining the Interfaith Hospitality Network of the Family Promise Organization. Their mission is to help children and families experiencing homelessness in NH get back on their feet. As a host congregation we will be housing guests and providing meals approximately four times a year for one week at a time. We will be disseminating more information regarding our involvement as a parish, and the various volunteer opportunities, over the next few weeks. For general information please visit familypromisegrc.org. If you are interested in getting involved with this ministry or have any questions please contact Kristen and Pete Klecan at klecan45@comcast.net or call/text at (603)401-7924.

“A little bit of mercy makes the world less cold and more just.” -Pope Francis

A Heart-felt Thanks

The Honduras Mission Team would like to share a heart-felt thanks from Luis Carlos, the young boy who received the Carnation Instant Breakfast. This makes year three that the HMT-NH has been able to supply this boy with the nutrition he needs to stay healthy. The team also supplies 20 gallons of purified water to Luis and his family. Thanks to all our parishioners who helped make this possible.

Easter Flower Remembrance

Parishioners may make a donation in memory of loved ones this Easter—envelopes are at the exits of both churches. The names will be published in our Easter bulletin and the 11:00 Masses at both churches will be offered for them. Help beautify our altars this season!!

Second Collection Notice....

Currently at St. Joseph Church a second collection is taken every Sunday. In the future, on Sundays for which no special collection is designated, we will not be passing the baskets a second time.

Just a reminder...

Anyone donating a basket in the Family-to-Family Easter Basket Project needs to drop it off at MQP by March 19 from 9:00am to 11:00am. Also, if anyone would like to adopt a family please see Justine Dufour after Mass or email her at pm@saintsmaryandjoseph.org

Family Service Day

Do you have yardwork/housework or a small house project that you are unable to do that a family or two within our parish could help with? Or do you know someone we could help with yardwork, planting, painting, cleaning etc.? Do you know of any community organizations that could use our help in tackling a project? On April 16th we are joining families and interested parishioners together to spend a morning serving those in need. Applications are available at the parish office and on the website.

In addition to yard work within the community, we have requests for 2 painting projects! To help with this, we are seeking donations of gallons of paint... We are unsure of the color as of yet, but maybe there are people who would donate the cost of a gallon of paint! Would you help us get the word out?

Thank you so much in advance!!!

Last Sunday's Bible Story:

The Prodigal Son

We talked about how we make mistakes and that God can see these on our hearts. (The little ones used washable marker and colored on a craft foam heart to visualize this.) When we tell God that we are sorry, He cleans our hearts. (The little ones placed their hearts into a tub of soapy water and washed away the marker "mistakes" from their hearts.) This was a wonderful hands-on activity that enabled the children to see that God loves and forgives us when we make mistakes. By acting out the Parable of the Prodigal Son, the little ones came away with the message that God is loving and forgiving to us, just like the father who welcomed home his son with a hug.
