REMEMBER IN YOUR PRAYERS ALL THOSE AFFECTED
BY THE ATTACKS IN PARIS - NOVEMBER 13, 2015

Our Mission Statement:

Discover God's Love so we might Love God; Love others; and Grow as a community of Disciples.

Reflection 11-22-2015

This past week saw the passing of the Catholic thinker Rene Girard, whom Fr. Robert Barron calls “one of the most influential Catholic philosophers in the world.” Girard spent his academic career in this country, but was born and educated in France, and his work has great relevance to the recent, violent events in France. Girard’s basic insight, inspired by the literary works of authors like Shakespeare and Dostoyevsky, is that we human beings learn what to desire by seeing what other people desire. Fr. Barron notes, “I come to want those gym shoes, not because of their intrinsic value, but because the hottest NBA star wants them.” This is problematic if two (or more) people come to focus on the same object, because each person’s desire enhances the desire of the other in an escalating spiral. Thus, arguments over trivial matters can escalate into even deadly fights. The French say, “Violence calls to violence.” Jesus’ exhortations in his Sermon on the Mount (Mt. 5-7) are directly opposed to conflicts caused by escalating desire, and his approach is the only one that can defuse the escalating global violence of our day. The following excerpt is from a thoughtful reflection by Rt. Rev. Pierre Whalon, Bishop-in-Charge of the Convocation of Episcopal Churches in Europe, on Jesus’ call to us at this crucial point in time:

Yes, Jesus did command us: “love your enemies and pray for those who persecute you.” “Love your enemies and do good to those who hate you.” (Matt. 5:44; Luke 6:27). Really? Yesterday several terrorists killed at least 128 people in six separate but coordinated attacks here in Paris. According to the Islamic State group, Da’ech, this was planned in advance and ordered from their base in Syria, in retaliation for the French involvement there.

The French president, François Hollande, has promised to reply in kind: “We will be merciless.” Meanwhile, hundreds of families are mourning their dead and wounded. “Love your enemies and do good to those who hate you.” Doesn’t that just “enable” them? Here is where our baptismal promise to “follow and obey Jesus as Lord” cuts into our lives. We should do good to those who hate us, because Jesus has told us to. So how can we?

Jesus asks us to follow his way, as love is the only power in this world that can literally and figuratively save us. In the short term, we need the police and the military, but the question of the terrorists concerns not only us here and now, but the whole human race. What word do we have for these people? Our first instincts are to demonize them, to label them as “Islamic fundamentalists” or some such, and cheer as the Rafale bombers carry out a massive campaign in retaliation. But this is too simple. It is not what Jesus would have us do. What he wants is harder. When we baptize or confirm people, Episcopalians always repeat the promise to “strive for justice and peace among all people”... We need therefore to chart a way to make peace. Peace, not appeasement or total war. In order to be able to do that, we first need to turn back to Jesus and ask for help, like this: O God, the Father of all, whose Son commanded us to love our enemies: lead them and us from prejudice to truth: deliver them and us from hatred, cruelty, and revenge; and in your good time enable us all to stand reconciled before you, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen. (Book of Common Prayer, p. 818.).

Fr. Tom

Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe—November 22, 2015

Middle School and High School Faith Formation Schedules

High School Emmaus Experience Year

Options 1 and 2 have their final class November 22nd. Teens and parents have the Discipleship Workshop on December 6th at St. Julie Hall. (Public and Catholic High School youth attend this day)

High School Confirmation Prep Year

Our youth in the preparation for Confirmation phase are participating in a Faith Witness project. Teens met either on November 8th or 9th to interview a person of faith and will develop a presentation to share how and why faith is necessary. Presentations will be given next month.

Middle School Classes

The December class for both Options is December 13th.

What's Happening At Kids Church....

Last Sunday's Fruit of the Spirit: PATIENCE

We learned that Patience is another word for Waiting. When you have patience, you wait without complaining. You don't whine or try to get your way faster. You wait quietly, trusting that God will take care of you. The little ones acted out the Parable of the Mustard Seed. The message that the little ones gained from this was: When we share God's love with others, we wait patiently for God's family to grow and grow just like the large tree grew from the tiny mustard seed.

November 29th: We will begin our new theme: KIDS CHURCH: A COMMUNITY OF DISCIPLES

Children's Christmas Party

The Knights of Columbus are inviting all the children in our parish who wish to be greeted by Santa. The party will be at our hall (37 Main St.) on December 20th from 1 to 3pm. There will be entertainment and food for all before Santa arrives.

Parents are asked to RSVP by December 10th to t_campbell59@hotmail.com with the expected number who will be attending. Parents must accompany their child throughout the event. To help out Santa, parents are to bring one wrapped and labeled present for their own child, of modest cost ($10-$20). Any questions, please email or call the Chairman, Tom Campbell at 893-1372. Thank you.

Thank you for your contribution to Saints Mary and Joseph Parish and our mission to serve the people of Salem.

Pasta Night Success

It was a great night with the team and so many of our regular "diners" who came to enjoy a Pasta/Meatball Supper ended with Apple Crisp. Thanks to all of you who came and wished us well with our mission and to tell us that you have missed us. There are 14 team members on the 2016 trip and we are looking forward to being with our Honduran friends in February, so we are all working hard to get the balance of the money needed. There is still time to help by purchasing your gift cards through us. Forms are at the office and once you have "shopped" you can turn it back into the office with a check made out to HMT-NH by November 23rd. Thank you to those of you who placed an early order, the team made $697.00!!

Heartfelt Thank You!!

To our entire, holy community of Sts. Mary and Joseph, Dick and I offer our deepest, dearest thanks for countless prayers, cards of encouragement and hope, Mass intentions, yummy food, offers of rides and "babysitting" so Dick could get a break during the first two weeks when I couldn't be left alone. So, so much love so freely and openly given... We are profoundly humbled by your generosity and thank you with all our hearts.

Dick & Anna Willis

Thanksgiving Day Blessings

Those coming to the Thanksgiving Day Mass at 9am at St. Joseph Church are invited to bring their bread and wine that they will be serving at their tables during their feasts so they can be blessed. We will be collecting that day for any non-perishable items for our food pantry...a basket will be provided at the Mass.

Slice-of-the-Pie Club News

Our November winners are as follows: Albert Raymond, Viola Cirella, Richard Morgano and Kathryn Aletto. They have each won $125. Our next drawing will be December 21st. Good Luck!!

THANK YOU! THANK YOU! THANK YOU!

Over the past year some parishioners have saved their coins and donated them for our sister mission in Mexico. As I stood in front of the coin machine I watched those pennies, nickels, dimes and quarters add up to $161.00. That money will be given to our friend, Lucas, who is a true missionary in the remote village of Colonia Benito Jauez. He will, in turn, be able to help feed 16 families for a month. Over the next few weeks we will let you know of other ministries and successes taking place in Mexico and how you might help in this missionary endeavor. Lee Alphen and Peter Klecan are preparing for a visit in January. Contributions through the Racetrack Ministry will be greatly appreciated. If you would like to contribute coins at any time you can give them to Ann Halloran, Peter Klecan or Lee Alphen.
