FIFTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

“I am the true
vine, and my Father is the vine grower.
He takes away
every branch in me that does not bear fruit, and everyone that does he prunes
so that it bears
more fruit.”

- Jn 15:1-2

SAINT PAUL, THE GREATEST APOSTLE

The second reading of today's (the 5th Sunday of Easter) Liturgy of the Word narrates the arrival of Saul (Paul) in Jerusalem and is met with fear by the disciples but with the help of Barnabas, he is able to speak of his experience of the Lord. We first met Saul at the time of Stephen's martyrdom (Acts Chap. 9). "They laid down their cloaks at the feet of a young man named Saul." "Now Saul was consenting to his (Stephen's) execution." Acts Chap. 9 also narrates Saul joining in the persecution of the disciples of the Lord and his plans to travel to Damascus to further the persecution. Saul was a highly educated young man and probably a Pharisee. For three or four years, he had studied the Torah under the guidance of Gamaliel, a teacher of the Law, a well respected Rabbi and member of the Sanhedrin.

Chap. 9 of Acts goes on to narrate the Conversion of Saul, one of three accounts of this conversion in Acts. As Saul nears Damascus ". . . a light from the sky suddenly flashed around him and he fell to the ground and he heard a voice saying: 'Saul, Saul why are you persecuting me?'" Modern interpreters of Paul's Letters as well as the Acts of the Apostles raise the question whether Paul's experience on the road to Damascus should be labeled a "conversion" or a "call." In comparison, St. Augustine underwent a real conversion experience but Paul's experience is quite different.

We have no insight into what actually happened to Paul on the road to Damascus. Luke does not try to analyze Paul's experience in any of his three different accounts. What we do know is that Paul not only became the Apostle of the Gentiles but it would not be an exaggeration to state that Paul was the greatest Apostle of Christianity. Almost two-thirds of the Acts of the Apostles centers on Paul's missionary work, his three missionary journeys traveling through the known world and his suffering many hardships.

Sing and Shout & Adoration St. Joseph Church—May 3rd

First Sunday Adoration on April 12th, 2015 was completely different from traditional forms of Eucharistic Adoration that we've had at our parish.

The night of worship was filled with song and prayer in a creative contemporary environment. The night started at St. Joe's church with some upbeat, contemporary worship songs led by Kyle Ericksen and then moved into Kyle speaking about how he feels the passion of the Lord. He gave an amazing testimony to God working in his life. There was a slide show with inspirational pictures along with the lyrics to the songs we sang. During Adoration there was quiet meditative music and also silent prayer time. It was a wonderful experience! If you would like to join us for the next Sing and Shout, please come to St. Joseph Church on Sunday, May 3rd at 6:30pm.

A Welcoming Community

We would like to extend a BIG THANK YOU to the many parishioners who prayed for us, encouraged us and shared our joy at the Easter Vigil. The many cards, gifts and welcoming wishes were beyond our expectations and are very much appreciated. We are blessed to be part of such a caring and supportive community.

NH Catholic School Scholarships!!

“I’d love to send my kids to Catholic school, but I just can’t afford it!” Have you ever said this? Have you ever heard a friend, neighbor, co-worker, or relative say it? You, or someone you know, may have heard about the benefits of Catholic schools which include a challenging curriculum and faith-based education, but such advantages might have seemed to be beyond financial reach. Now, however, there is aid available to NH residents to help finance educational options such as Catholic schools. The Network for Educational Opportunity (NEO) offers need-based Education Tax Credit Scholarships for those families whose income does not exceed three times the federal poverty level. These scholarships can be used at Catholic schools as well as other educational institutions that provide alternatives to public education! Kate Baker, the Executive Director of NEO, will explain how these scholarships work at a presentation to be held at SJRCS, 40 Main St., Salem, NH on Wednesday, May 6th at 5:30pm. All are welcome to attend this presentation including interested parents as well as small business owners who would like to support expanded educational opportunities while enjoying a big tax break. Any questions...contact the SJRCS office at 603-893-6811.

Faith Formation Registrations going on now until June 1st for 2015-16 for the 6th-12th graders! After June 1st the registration fee will be increased, so register now!

Because a Summer Option is offered, we need to do registrations in the Spring...Handbooks and registration forms are available at the church entrance and the parish website! God is wanting to do something so incredibly LIFE-GIVING for us and through us in the Salem area!!!

What's Happening at Kidschurch?

Because Jesus knows His sheep and they listen to His voice, we played a game where one of us was blind-folded and had to find "Jesus" who said, "I'm over here!" Then we played "Jesus Says" (Simon Says). We each made a lamb to remind us we are Jesus' sheep. We learned a special prayer where we met Jesus in our Heart Room and we listened very carefully for what He wanted to tell us! We sang a special song that asked if we would be a friend to Jesus and we responded:

"Yes, Lord, Yes!
Yes, Lord, Yes!
Yes, Lord, I will come and follow You,
Follow You wherever You go!"
