Long-Range Planning Becomes Medium-Range

On March 2nd, Fr. Tom and I spent almost one and a half hours talking with Bishop Peter. He expressed his appreciation for all of the hard work that the Long-Range Planning Committee did in researching and compiling the report. He asked our take on the future of the school, the present status of the parish, and the unique culture of each church-campus. He was heartened to know that the efforts made to establish a second family Mass are bearing fruit and that we are experimenting with a 5 PM Sunday Mass. The fact that we are attracting young families to the 9:30 and 11 AM contemporary music Masses was encouraging to him. He also was appreciative of the fact that the Jesuits will remain for at least a few more years.

After much mutual conversation, his advice was that we continue to work to grow the parish with young families. He hopes that this will allow the parish to continue with two sites and allow the growth of the finances so that we can care for all of the parish needs. He is willing to put up some diocesan parish mutual aid funds for the next year or two while we grow the parish to where it can pay all of its bills.

I was reminded of the parable of Jesus about the unfruitful fig tree. The farmer is given more time to hoe around it and manure it so that it will bear fruit. In effect, Bishop Peter is telling us that the church in Salem is beginning to bear more fruit and so, rather than taking the drastic action of closing one church, we are to continue to work for its growth. For this to happen all of the members of the church will need to become evangelists, inviting our neighbors and new people in the community to come and worship with us. May God shower Salem with a new outpouring of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

*Peace in the Lord Jesus,
Fr. John*

The Winter Blues – Can You Help?

This has been quite the winter with some hundred inches of snow. Too often the snow came on a weekend which kept many from coming to church. Our collections were down by about $15,000 during those snowy weekends. Thank you to those of you who have given more to help us catch up. However, we are still down by over $10,000. Our plowing expenses this winter are about $18,200. Our two plowing and fuel collections have brought in $9,827. Thus, next weekend, Palm Sunday, the second collection will be taken up to help pay the plowing bill. Please be as generous as you are able to be.

*Thank you and God bless you.
Fr. John*

A very special thank you to Dawn Pavlini for all she does to make KIDSCHURCH available!

This past weekend we had our Open House with a very special guest, St. Patrick!!! Dawn displayed each craft that coordinates with each lesson. She also displayed the blue whale which the children "sit in" to experience the story of Jonah, as well as Zacchaeus' tree which the kids could sit in to see Jesus pass by!
Preschoolers certainly experience the Bible come alive at KIDSCHURCH!! We are looking for more adult volunteers to help offer this opportunity for our "wee ones" as St. Patrick would call them. If you are interested and available to help maybe one weekend a month, please leave a message with Sue Levesque at the parish office.

What's Happening at KIDSCHURCH!

March 29th: Hosanna!! We will celebrate Palm Sunday. We will listen to the story "The Cross and the Egg." We are even going to color our very own eggs!
Come join us for this special day.

April 5th: Happy Easter!! Alleluia! Jesus Has Risen!
Come join us at KIDSCHURCH for our very special Easter celebration!!

THE IGNATIAN EXAMEN

The examen prayer, in two parts, is essential to Ignatian spirituality. The general examen is done spontaneously each evening by Christians when they review their day to recollect how they were or were not acting as Christ. A yardstick for review can be the "fruit of the Spirit, ... love, joy, peace, etc." (Gal 5:22, Phil 4:4-7), or St. Paul's famous passage on love (1 Cor 13:4-7). St. Ignatius suggests we look for patterns in our daily behavior, asking, "What events in my life tend to rob me of love, joy, peace, etc.? What attitudes of mine lead to my negative behaviors?"

To go beyond mere review and achieve transformation, I apply the particular examen to one of my faults. I can do this in about thirty seconds, first thing in the morning, by asking God to help me during the day to recognize the times I might give into my fault, and to help me grow in the knowledge of how I can replace my fault with its corresponding virtue. I focus on the same fault long enough (days, weeks ...) to allow God's grace to work in me. This brief prayer is miraculously effective because it puts my desire for transformation in the back of my mind from where it can leap into consciousness at the first promptings of the Holy Spirit. My general examen can now help me to monitor—and give thanks for—the daily progress with which God will be blessing me. Fr. Frink

Men's Prayer Breakfast

The monthly Men's Prayer Breakfast will be on Saturday, March 28th, in St. Julie Hall at St. Joseph Church. Coffee's ready at 7:30am and breakfast at 8:00am, followed by a short service of prayer and a presentation. We wrap up at 9:30am. This month the presentation and discussion are about the "the flesh" as an obstacle to holiness. All men are welcome; just set your alarm and show up. The cost is whatever you choose to drop in the basket.

What's Happening in Youth Ministry?

Blessing to our Parish Family from Youth Ministry! Your support of our Irish Soda Bread fundraiser was tremendous! You brought home over 215 homemade Irish soda breads to share with your families and friends! As a result Youth Ministry was able to raise over $950 to support our upcoming events and to share the prayer of Saint Patrick! Thanks also to those individuals who made donations after each liturgy. Youth Ministry is blessed by your acts of faith and your generosity!

Sending to each of you an Old Irish Blessing:

May the road rise up to meet you.

May the wind always be at your back.

May the sun shine warm upon your face,
and rains fall soft upon your fields.

And until we meet again,

May God hold you in the palm of His hand.

March Slice-of-the Pie Club Winners

Congratulations to our winners of $125 each: Mary Denman, Andrew Vallario, and Ashlee Sarnie-Caires. Our next drawing will be Monday, April 20th.

Our Story:

Teenagers from our entire parish community invite you to witness the power and majesty of Christ's last days on earth. This 45 minute multi-media presentation utilizes mime, music, action, lighting, and intense emotion to create a feeling of participation by the audience in the last days of Jesus' life. It is almost as though you are able to enter into the very heart, mind, soul, spirit, and body of Christ Himself during the agony...and triumph...of His Last days.

Other:

This show is sponsored by the SM&J Parish Youth Ministry and is our one and only performance for 2015, so please join us, and we can promise an experience that you will not soon forget!!
