Love Shines Through Good Works...

A wonderful grace of my Jesuit vocation was my time ministering in downtown Kingston, Jamaica. I served for a total of six years as novice, scholastic, and priest. Having grown up in a middle-class New England suburb, I was shocked on arriving in Kingston as a novice to see the living conditions. It was so loud and cramped compared to those to which I was accustomed, yet these conditions are actually the norm for most of the world's population. My first month was a sad one, as I struggled to make sense of the material disparities of our world. Soon, however, I came to a second realization: the children around me, running barefoot in the street, were FULL of life; so full, they began filling me with new life. Beginning with the children, I began seeing God at work in countless ways. For these people, God is not only a presence but the true provider of what they need. I saw as well the daily miracles of charitable giving by those who have so little like our church member; the single man, who passed by an unwanted two-year-old thrown out into the street, spontaneously took in and adopted the boy whose eyes were pleading, "PLEASE—I want to live!" Blessed are you poor.... (Lk 6:20)

Parish Lenten Retreat March 9, 10, 11 & 12

Plan to "get away" for a few days of Lenten prayer and reflection-without leaving the parish church!

Deacon Jay Cormier will lead a four-day parish retreat during the third week of Lent, Monday through Thursday, March 9-12. The retreat program will take place at 7:15am at St. Joseph Church, and be repeated that evening at 7pm at Mary Queen of Peace Church.

The retreat is designed to provide what Jesus calls us to seek out: an 'out-of-way' place for unplugging from the busyness of our lives in order to reconnect with God. Each retreat session will begin with Mass, followed by the day's reflection by Deacon Jay. The retreat will include ideas and resources for personal reflection and prayer on each of the themes for the four days.

Markers along the way is the theme of the retreat: Each retreat will focus on a simple "marker" of God's presence that we all encounter in our everyday lives as spouses, parents, siblings, family members and friends. Recognizing and seeing these markers in new ways enable us to bring the hope and optimism of Easter into our homes, schools and workplaces.

Good Food, Laughter and Magic

Comedy Night was a wonderful night for the over 225 people who braved the snow and enjoyed spending Valentine's Evening together. Mike Petit, the comedian, brought smiles to our faces and Pete Mamos, the hypnotist, transformed willing volunteers into five-year-olds on Sesame Street. Who knew that the volunteers would discover Big Bird, Phil Collins and Brad Pitt among the attendees (or so they thought)?

A big word of thanks goes to Jamie and Forrest Thompson, Mike and Tara Banks and Joe and Jan Balzano for planning and coordinating the night. Over thirty raffle items were provided by local merchants, restaurants, banks and friends. Special thanks go out to: Wil Bamford, the Boston Red Sox, Cataudella Funeral Home, Conway Scenic Railway, Crown Jewelers and Boutique, Christy Duffield, the Halligan Tavern, Holiday Inn, Innovations Salon and Spa, the Knights of Columbus, the Lobster Tail Restaurant, Luna Rosa, Maddie's Bagel and Eatery, Mary Kay (Marilyn Suszek), Merrimack Valley Credit Union, Naser Diamonds and Fine Jewelry, Palace Theatre, Salem Cooperative Bank, Salem Farmers' Market, T-Bones Restaurant, Tuscan Kitchen, and Zorvino's Vineyards.

ST. JOSEPH REGIONAL CATHOLIC SCHOOL PRESCHOOL thru Grade 8 in Salem still has openings! It's not too late to register!

Our preschool is based on living out the gospel of Jesus by preparing preschoolers through prayer, arts & crafts, reading, playing, and service to others.

We extend an invitation to all families to register for 2015-2016 school year. We offer a full-day and half-day program 2 to 5 days a week – make your own schedule!

Children must be at least 2 years and 9-months as of 9/1/15. If you have any questions, or would like to set up an appointment to come see our preschool, please call Cathy McDonough, Director at 893-5232 or email cmcdonough@sjrcs.com.

Also, SJRCS grade 1-8 offers a strong academic curriculum intertwined with spiritual formation and a range of enrichment and athletic programs for nearly 60 years. We also have classes for art, music, physical education, technology and library. Seventh and eighth graders learn Spanish. Technology is incorporated in every classroom and eighth graders have 1-1 iPads. Check out our website at sjrcs.org or call 893-6811 to arrange a tour. SJRCS is a good investment for your child's education.
