A Fiscal Update: Where We Stand

Dear Brothers and Sisters in the Lord Jesus,

Each year I try to speak about money for the parish only once, when the yearly report to the parish is given. Often the report is given by a member of the Finance Council in October. I am more comfortable in asking for donations for the poor. However, this year, the parish is ending the fiscal year (June 30) deeply in the red. As older members of the parish pass on from this life and too many of their children and grandchildren find the worship of God at Mass to be of little importance, church revenues have dropped and for the first time in my eight years in Salem, the offertory collection has gone down. We are not able to pay all of our bills and our general reserves are nearly depleted. Yet a 5 or 6% increase in our offertory would put us in the black.

As our yearly report tells us, it costs nearly one million dollars a year to maintain our two campuses. Property and health insurance alone cost over $90,000 a year. We have not kept up with repairs on our buildings. Yet the word of God continues to be preached, the Eucharist is celebrated, over 100 funerals are celebrated, about 85 children and adults are baptized, over 550 children receive religious education, and over 80 make their First Holy Communion each year. Thousands are prayed for on our prayer line and intention books and at Adoration, over 100 receive prayer shawls and nearly 100 receive quilts. Between 80 and 100 are served by our food pantry each month, and many are helped with fuel, rent and utilities.

Many Protestant churches ask their church members to tithe, which is give 10% of their income to the church. There are some of us in the parish who do tithe to charity, and the church is one of those charities. But the number who do is far outweighed by those who give $5 or $10. That is fine for those who struggle to get by, but for those who can afford to spend $2500 on a vacation each year, please ask yourself how you can better support your church? We need your help. First of all, pray that our numbers grow for so many need Jesus in their lives. Secondly, help to bring your parish back financially so that we can pay all of our bills. Thirdly, when you are planning your estate, please remember your parish. The Episcopal Church, which is small in numbers, continues to go on because its member have a habit of tithing their estates to their parish. Finally, go to God and ask God how you can best help your parish to grow into all that God would have her be. May God bless you.

Peace in the Lord Jesus and in the Holy Spirit,
Fr. John

A Fourth of July Prayer

We lift up our hearts, O God, on this day of celebration in gratitude for the gift of being Americans.

We rejoice with all those who share in the great dream of freedom and dignity for all.

With flags and feasting, with family and friends, we salute those who have sacrificed that we might have the opportunity to bring to fulfillment our many God-given gifts.

As we deny all prejudice a place in our hearts, may we also clearly declare our intention to work for the time when all people, regardless of race, religion or sex, will be granted equal dignity and worth.

Come, O gracious God, who led your children Israel from slavery, keep us free from all that might hold us in bondage.

Bless our country and join our simple celebration that we may praise you, our Source of freedom, the One in whom we place our trust.
Ed Hays

Developing Teen Spiritual Growth Plan and Discipleship Committee

This committee is meeting Monday, June 30, at 7pm to work on these two enhancements to the Immediate Prep for Confirmation as challenged by our diocesan office.

Welcome to our new Pastoral Council Member

My name is James Wilder and I am 20 years old from Salem, New Hampshire. I graduated from Salem High in 2012 and work full-time as a mason and have also done plumbing. I was raised a Baptist but I've recently joined Saints Mary and Joseph Parish and was received into the catholic church during the Easter Vigil in 2013. I prefer the catholic structure a little better. I still attend a service at Island Pond Baptist Church from time to time with my father. I play golf and fish but mostly work. Other than Jesus, I love the Red Sox. They don't call the fans the faithful for nothing.

A Warm Good-Bye

Just wanted you all to know that my 12 years at St. Joe's are coming to an end. I am sad to be leaving my long-time extended family and I will miss everyone. The friendships and experiences I gained were a precious gift that I will never forget. As my son graduates, I look back on all the years he grew up in this school, and realize my decision to send both him and my daughter to St. Joseph's was the best decision I ever made. My children are both spiritually and academically prepared to move on to their futures and I know because of St. Joe's, they will become successful, thriving adults in the real world. The memories of all my years at St. Joe's will never be forgotten. I wish all of you much joy and success for the coming years. God bless you and your families. Sincerely, Lise Giordano
