How To Take Young Children to Mass

For the next three weeks we will print the Before, During, and After on bringing young children to church.

Sometimes at the end of Mass a parishioner comes up to us and says “Your three children are SO well behaved!” Our standard response is either, “Thank you. We work at it” or “Thank you, some days are better than others. The “better” days are the product of years of articles and brochures we read on take children to Mass. Here is the distill wisdom we rely upon.

Before Church

—Make sure children are well-fed right before Mass. They do not need to fast, nor will fasting help them to be on their best behavior during Mass. We personally do not think it is appropriate to take snacks into the pew. Our exception to this a non-spill drink cup that bought us enough time to hear the homily once in a while.

—Beginning even with the smallest infants, dress them in some special clothing that they wear only for church or other special events. This does not have to be expensive and can be as simple as a nice pair of shoes. It helps them to identify what we do at Mass as different from everyday activity.

—Check your diaper bag to make sure it is stocked for any possible needs. Consider including a small toy or book that your child sees only on Sunday at Mass. These should be quiet and made of soft material so that they do not distract those around you from their prayer while they are being played with or in case they are dropped.

—Put on a fresh diaper or visit the bathroom right walking out the door of your home or into the church.

For Toddlers or older children

—You might read the readings in the car on the way to church. This could even be the job of an older child. Then everyone hears them at least once in case someone has to step out during a portion of the Mass.

—Before going into the church take a moment to remind children what you are about to do. Make sure they know what their job is at Mass. For us, we say that their job is to be quiet/still, to participate by sharing their voices and to pray. Their job is also not to distract those around them from praying.

St. Valentine Comedy Night Dinner Raffle Items Request

Do you, a friend or a family member own a business you would like to promote? If so, we would like your help! We are looking for items such as tickets, gift baskets, or gift certificates to be donated for our raffle at this year’s Comedy Night. All proceeds go to benefit Sts. Mary & Joseph Parish. This is an important fundraiser for the parish which last year spent approximately $30,000 to aid those locally in need. Between Thanksgiving, Christmas and Easter, our parish provided meal baskets to over 220 families and our Christmas gift collection fulfilled 265 children’s wishes. In addition, our food pantry provides local families basic nutritional assistance when they fall on hard times. Please contact Mike Banks at mike@mikebanks.com if you are interested, or drop off your item at the parish office with your contact information. Thank you for your consideration.

Christmas Day Dinner Thank You

The 5th Annual Free Christmas Day Dinner was held and sponsored by the Salem, NH Knights of Columbus, Sts. Mary & Joseph Parish and Salem Christmas Fund under the direction of David C. Thompson, Jr. We fed 200 and sent over 70 meals home to home bound, ill, etc. A huge thank you to those who helped cook, serve, clean up, deliver, donated and to the following businesses: Maddies, Tuscan Kitchen, Shaheen Brothers, Donabedians. Many members of various churches and the community made donations of items, as well as money and also participated in the days leading up to Christmas Day and the day itself. We were also fortunate to have a singer and a keyboard artist participate and bring joy to those who attended as well as donations of centerpieces for the tables. We also had several young men and women who brought smiles while working to those in attendance. Wonderful to see that the younger people are so willing to help. The food that was left over was brought to Lazarus House, and donations were made to the Food Pantries. We are really blessed with the response and hopefully will be able to host this function next year for the 6th annual. Again, many thanks and I wish for all: God Bless, Safe Travels and Good Health for
