First Sunday of Lent

—Out of Penance, Blessings Come

—Love Shines Through Good Works

—Trust God's Commandments

—"For God So Loved The World"

—Holiness Through Self-Awareness

What is the Spirit of Lent? It is the 40 days that Jesus went into the wilderness to fast and pray before starting his public ministry. He wanted his spirit to be strong for the hard days ahead. Lent is the time when we, as Catholics, fast, pray and do good works to strengthen our spirits, too, like Jesus.

Picture in your mind how Jesus went into the desert alone. Did you ever have a time when you felt that you needed to be by yourself? We adults will sometimes take a walk, sit in our favorite spot and read or just find peace and solitude by thinking, daydreaming or pondering alone. I bet a lot of you have a favorite “place” to find quiet. Jesus did just that—in the desert. God, His Father, watched over him, and had the animals keep him company. Jesus just thought and prayed for 40 days.

We ourselves can't go out into the desert, but I hope each of you find your “special place” where you can pray and think about what you might do during the holy season of Lent: Fasting – eating less food; Praying – talking and listening to God; Doing good works such as being kind to others and helping the poor. (Maybe helping someone with shoveling snow!). Be sure to check the bulletin for all the Lenten activities happening in our Parish.

Spiritually, Lent is a time to pray, attend Mass with your family, do the Stations of the Cross, and maybe read a Bible story each night with your family. Lent is a season for forgiveness, for looking into your heart to find more kindness and understanding. Instead of giving up your favorite food, videogame, or television show, why not work on a weakness you might have? It may be impatience, laziness, not listening, jealousy, or failing to forgive. Begin each day asking God to show you how to overcome that fault. Make a point of understanding, or listening and speaking to, a particular person to whom you have difficulty relating. You will find personal satisfaction in knowing that, not just during Lent but always, you can be a little bit better as a person.

Finally, look around the Church these days. No flowers, the color purple, a desert feel to the atmosphere—and ashes on your forehead. These are all signs that we are frail humans, sorry for our wrongdoings. Although this season is drab, colorless, etc., it is all in preparation for the joyous and glorious day of New Life, Easter Sunday, the day Jesus rose from the dead!

Mark Your Calendars:

Parish Lenten Retreat March 9, 10, 11 & 12

Plan to “get away” for a few days of Lenten prayer and reflection-without leaving the parish church!

Deacon Jay Cormier will lead a four-day parish retreat during the third week of Lent, Monday through Thursday, March 9-12. The retreat program will take place at 7:15am at St. Joseph Church, and be repeated that evening at 7pm at Mary Queen of Peace Church.

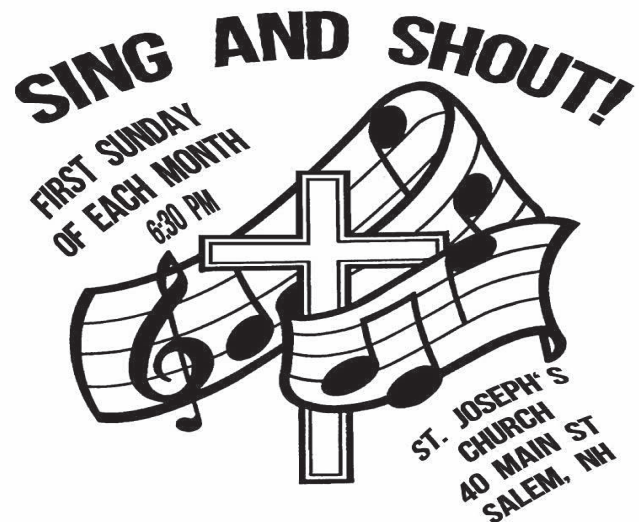

The retreat is designed to provide what Jesus calls us to seek out: an ‘out-of-way’ place for unplugging from the busyness of our lives in order to reconnect with God. Each retreat session will begin with Mass, followed by the day's reflection by Deacon Jay. The retreat will include ideas and resources for personal reflection and prayer on each of the themes for the four days.

Markers along the way is the theme of the retreat: Each retreat will focus on a simple “marker” of God's presence that we all encounter in our everyday lives as spouses, parents, siblings, family members and friends. Recognizing and seeing these markers in new ways enable us to bring the hope and optimism of Easter into our homes, schools and workplaces.

Middle School and High School Faith Formation

Emmaus Experience Snow-Day Make-up Class:

On Sunday, March 22nd, high school youth have a large group presentation scheduled (God's Plan for Love and Life.) Since we're already together, we are scheduling our make-up class from Feb 8th snow day...we will meet 5-8:30 at St. Julie Hall.

Because of cancellations due to Feb snow, the Option 5 Immediate Prep for Confirmations is revised as follows:

March 8 & 15, April 12, May 3 & 17 at St. Joe's Family Room. We begin with the 5pm Mass at St. Joe's and then continue with class downstairs.

Faith Formation March Schedule:

Middle School Families meet next on March 8th.

Confirmation candidates will be meeting with their mentors on March 15th.

Lenten Purple Crosses

We invite you to hang this purple cross on your front door as a means of expressing the Ash Wednesday reading from the Hebrew Scriptures: Joel 2:12, 13, 15-16b:

*"Yet even now, says the Lord,
return to Me with your whole heart,
with fasting, and weeping, and mourning;
Rend your hearts...and return to the Lord, your God.
For gracious and merciful is He,
slow to anger, rich in kindness,
and relenting in punishment..."*

When we hang the crosses on our front doors for people driving by homes to see, we are as described in the Ash Wednesday's second reading from 2 Corinthians 5:20-21, 6:2:

*"We are ambassadors for Christ,
God as it were appealing through us.
We implore you, through Christ:
be reconciled to God!
...Now is the acceptable time!
Now is the day of salvation!"*

Let us speak of God's great love, forgiveness and invitation to grow as the People of God...

Let us make this a grace-filled Lent!

Our Choral Ensemble and Lectors will offer sacred readings about the Passion of Christ punctuated by sanctified songs.

Join with us as we pray this beautiful Lenten prayer.

Men's Prayer Breakfast

The monthly Men's Prayer Breakfast will be on Saturday, February 28, in St. Julie Hall at St. Joseph Church, Salem. Coffee's ready at 7:30am and breakfast is at 8:00am, followed by a short service of prayer and a presentation. We wrap up at 9:30. This month's presentation and discussion are about the World as an obstacle to holiness. All men are welcome; just set your alarm and show up. The cost is whatever you choose to drop in the basket.

Eternal Light

Jesus is the Light of the World. Our Eternal Light candle is burning at MQP Church this week in memory of John Camasso by Mr. & Mrs. Stephen Leone and at St. Joseph Church in memory of Wilfred Pelletier by Louise & Jeff Pelletier.
