Fond Farewell and Thank You...

As you may have heard, Mary Roy has retired from our parish staff and we had a farewell party for her this past Sunday. It was a great turn out of staff and parishioners wishing her the best.

Mary has been a friend and colleague for many years, and a good and faithful servant of God with unbounded energy that is founded in her true love of our Lord, our parish, and our ministerial and missionary duties. Her kind, caring and gentle manner will be greatly missed by all whom she has touched. She has promised to continue her efforts with the Honduran Mission team and to return to us for special guest visits, and we all look forward very much to seeing her as often as the good Lord will send her back to us. Her wisdom and inspiration will be greatly missed and we all wish her good health and happiness in her many years of retirement!!

My Deepest Thanks...

I want you all to know how grateful I have felt over the past 14 years to minister to the community of Sts. Mary and Joseph and to be allowed into your homes and lives. I have enjoyed so many of you and I am blessed to call you my friends. You accepted me and the gifts that I brought to share – you trusted my insights and you gave of yourself to make it all work better than I ever thought. I have seen for myself what a team of people can do when they step up to the plate. I have felt the support of many of you and in the end many parish programs were successful because we worked together. I will always be proud of the things we made happen together. I may have set the plan in motion but you, the generous parishioners of Salem, made it all work. Thank you my friends. I will keep you in my prayers as I know that you will keep me in yours. Mary Roy

Come spend some time in a quiet, "out-of-the-way" place — without leaving the parish church . . .

Markers along the way: A Lenten parish retreat

Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday
March 9, 10, 11 and 12, 2015

7:15 a.m. at St. Joseph Church, 40 Main Street in Salem

7 p.m. at Mary Queen of Peace Church, 200 Lawrence Road in Salem

Each session will begin with Mass, followed by the day's retreat conference by Deacon Jay Cormier. There will also be time for private prayer and reflection.

Each retreat day will focus on a simple "marker" or indicator of God's presence that we all encounter in our everyday lives as spouses, parents, siblings, family members and friends. Recognizing and seeing these "markers" in new ways enable us to bring the hope and optimism of Easter into our homes and schools and workplaces.

You're welcome to come to as many sessions as you can. Each session will be given twice each day, as noted above.

“Listen to him.” “Love your enemies.”

Last Sunday we heard the Father say at the Transfiguration, “This is my beloved Son. Listen to him.” What did the apostles then, and we now, so resist hearing? In Mark 8:31 and 8:34-35, we read, “He began to teach them that the Son of Man had to suffer much, be rejected by the elders, the chief priests and the scribes, be put to death, and rise three days later.” “If a man wishes to come after me, he must deny his very self, take up his cross and follow in my steps. Whoever would preserve his life will lose it, and whoever loses his life for my sake and the gospel's will preserve it.”

As St. Paul tells us in our second reading this Sunday, “We proclaim Christ crucified, a stumbling block to Jews and foolishness to Gentiles, but to those who are called, Jews and Greeks alike, Christ the power of God and the wisdom of God.” (I Corinthians 22-24). Christ crucified is the one who from the cross prays, “Father, forgive them for they know not what they do.” Jesus with his life and death underlines what he taught in the Sermon on the Mount: “Love your enemies, pray for your persecutors.” (Mt. 5:44). To love your enemies does not mean that you do not try to protect the innocent, but it does mean that you forgive those who persecute you. This is why we celebrate the faith of so many martyrs who died witnessing to the faith and forgiving their enemies. Among the Japanese martyrs, Paul Miki not only professed his belief in Jesus and the power of the resurrection, but he explicitly forgave the emperor and his soldiers who were crucifying Paul and his companions. As Tertullian said in the fourth century, “The blood of martyrs is the seed of faith.” This has proved true not only in the Roman Empire but in Uganda, Japan, Vietnam, Korea and other places. Our faith says that it will be true again today, for as St. Paul says, “For the foolishness of God is wiser than human wisdom, and the weakness of God is stronger than human strength.” (I Cor. 1:25). Fr. John
